

Vedanta Sees Better Q4 after a Solid Q3

Mumbai: Vedanta's performance for Q4 will be "significantly bigger and better" than the December quarter, chief financial officer Ajay Goel said Thursday, speaking after the company's revenue, profit, and earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation (Ebitda) hit at an all time high in the three months to December. "Pricing will be positive in the third quarter vis-à-vis the fourth quarter," Goel told ET in an exclusive interaction.

He pegged the company's Ebitda for the full year in excess of $6 billion. So far in this fiscal, Vedanta has had an Ebitda of ₹37,529 crore (approximately $4.1 billion), up 18% compared to the previous year, and at an all-time high.

The Anil Agarwal-owned company clocked in a consolidated net profit of ₹7,807 cr, up 60% on year, while its consolidated Ebitda jumped 34% on year to ₹15,171 cr. Consolidated revenue for the period stood at ₹45,899 cr. - Nikita Periwal
