

bt Business Today

Business News > Latest > Corporate > Vedanta demerger to unlock phenomenal value for shareholders: Anil Agarwal

Vedanta demerger to unlock phenomenal value for shareholders: Anil Agarwal

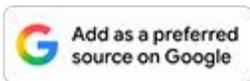

After the demerger, each of these companies can become as big as Vedanta, says Chairman Anil Agarwal

ADVERTISEMENT

Karan Dhar

Updated Mar 13, 2026 6:28 PM IST

ADVERTISEMENT

The Vedanta demerger, expected to complete by the first half of 2026, will lead to five independently listed companies.

Oil-to-mining conglomerate Vedanta Ltd's proposed demerger will create phenomenal value for shareholders, according to the company's Chairman Anil Agarwal.

"Each company has by itself become very big, be it aluminium, zinc or oil and gas. When companies separate, each of these can become as big as Vedanta," Agarwal told Business Today.

ADVERTISEMENT

The Vedanta demerger, expected to complete by the first half of 2026, will lead to five independently listed companies.

In December 2025, the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) Mumbai bench gave the green light to demerge Vedanta into five different listed entities. Following the demerger, the base metals

ADVERTISEMENT

Sabo Power, Vedanta Iron and Steel and

Malco Energy will be the other four entities.

The mining conglomerate reported a robust set of financial results for the third quarter ended December 31, 2025, with net profit of Rs 7,807 crore, registering a jump of 60% compared to Rs 4,876 crore in the corresponding quarter of the previous fiscal.

The company's revenue from operations climbed 19% to Rs 45,899 crore in Q3 FY25 against Rs 16,742 crore in the year-ago period.

Vedanta Ltd (VEDL) Share Price

Sector: Mining & Mineral products (Large Cap) | Volume: 4032592

Mar 17, 2026, 10:53 AM IST OPEN

₹693.50 ₹7.90 (0.73%) NSE BSE

STOCK ANALYSIS

SPOTLIGHT

India delays US trade deal amid Trump administration's new...

Published on: Mar 13, 2026 6:28 PM IST

ADVERTISEMENT