Diversified natural resources company Vedanta Ltd on Thursday said it has contributed Rs 62,722 crore to the exchequer in the financial year 2025-26, registering an increase of 13.3 per cent over the previous year.

This contribution to the exchequer was on the back of Vedanta's historic-best financial performance in the last financial year.

According to the company's 11th tax transparency report, Vedanta's cumulative contribution to the exchequer over the past ten years was to the tune of Rs 4,83,034 crore.

"The contribution represents 36 per cent of the company's consolidated revenue from operations, playing a pivotal role in India's economic development," the company said.

The strong financial performance was driven by robust operational performance across Vedanta's diversified portfolio spanning zinc-lead-silver, aluminium, copper, iron ore, steel, power, nickel, chrome and oil and gas.

Zinc remained the largest contributor at Rs 19,053 crore, followed by aluminium (now listed as Vedanta Aluminium) at Rs 15,788 crore and Oil & Gas (now listed as Vedanta Oil & Gas) at Rs 11,697 crore.

Vedanta Ltd is a leading global producer of metals, critical minerals and technology with operations across India, Africa, the Middle East and East Asia.
