Vedanta Ltd said on Thursday that its cumulative contribution to the national exchequer over the past decade reached Rs 4.83 trillion, with payments rising 13.3 per cent year on year to Rs 62,722 crore in FY26, according to the company's latest Tax Transparency Report.

The contribution, comprising taxes, royalties, duties, profit petroleum and other statutory payments, accounted for about 36 per cent of the company's consolidated revenue from operations during the year.

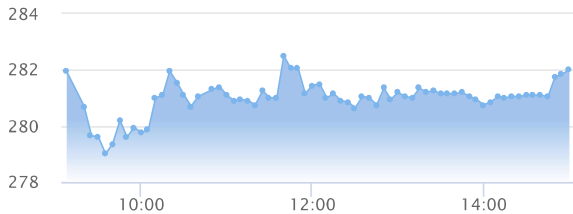

The mining and metals conglomerate said FY26 payments represented its second-highest annual contribution to government coffers and reflected the strong performance of its diversified portfolio spanning zinc, aluminium, oil and gas, iron ore, steel, power and other businesses.
