Metals and mining giant Vedanta on Wednesday posted a consolidated profit after tax (PAT) of ₹6,202 crore for the quarter ended September 2026 (Q2FY27), more than double the PAT of ₹2,471 crore reported in the same quarter last financial year.

Total revenue of the company rose 57 per cent to ₹25,812 crore during Q2FY27 from ₹16,445 crore recorded in the same period last financial year.

Earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortisation (Ebitda) stood at a record ₹9,938 crore in Q2FY27, primarily driven by favourable market and regulatory factors, along with volume and marketing and other benefits, partly offset by higher costs, the company said.

Net debt reduced by ₹4,624 crore Q-o-Q from ₹8,299 crore in June 2026 to ₹3,675 crore. Vedanta generated pre-capex free cash flow of ₹5,803 crore in Q2FY27. It also invested a growth capex of ₹1,135 crore in Q2FY27 with cumulative growth capex of ₹2,283 crore for April-September FY27.

Arun Misra, chief executive officer and executive director, Vedanta, said that the capex was directed towards growth projects, advancing capacity, and mine development among other functions.
